PRESS RELEASE

MPC's first wind project in operation

(Hong Kong – March 20, 2009) - Meiya Power Company Limited (MPC) is pleased to announce that its first wind project, Huide Wind Farm (Phase I) has completed construction and commissioning, and has entered into full commercial operation.

This wind project is located at Huade County in Wulanchabu City of Inner Mongolia, PRC with a total installed capacity of 49.5 MW. The project is owned and managed by MPC's PRC joint venture investment company Xiangtou International. The project consists of 33 sets of 1.5 MW wind turbine/generator.

Dr. Alan W. Chan, Chairman & CEO of MPC said: "We are now proceeding with Phase II of the project to install another 49.5 MW of wind capacity in 2009. When all six phases are fully completed, the Huide project will consist of 300 MW of wind power."

"The Huide project represents a significant step forward in MPC's effort to further develop renewable energy sources in addition to the ongoing hydro power developments. It will make an important contribution to the Company's renewable energy portfolio and further strengthen the fuel diversification strategy that the Company has undertaken for the last ten years." he continued.
